

The Watchman and Southron.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 22, 1899.

The Sumter Watchman was founded in 1850 and the True Southron in 1866. The Watchman and Southron now has the combined circulation and influence of both of the old papers, and is manifestly the best advertising medium in Sumter.

Mr. A. Howard Patterson of Barnwell has issued an open letter in defense of the dispensary system and strikes an attitude for the gubernatorial lightning to hit him. He is early in the race for the nomination, but he will not want for company when the office seeker's circus starts on the tour of the State.

Gen Wheeler has burnt his bridges behind him and will remain in the Philippines to aid in conquering the Filipinos for the imperialist land grabbers. He has gone over to the McKinley crowd bag and baggage, and the people of Alabama will find no difficulty in electing a man who will more truly represent them in congress than Gen Wheeler could while he entertained his present opinions.

There is a lull in the dispensary war while the armor clad warriors are recovering from their wounds. It would be a wise precaution for the warriors to invest in a few joints of heavy stove pipe before the next battle. Legs are quite as vulnerable as other parts of the body. In the case of Ouzts, if he has any idea of abandoning the pen for the pistol or shot gun, we advise tobacco barns and molasses evaporators are plentiful in Marion County this sort of armor may be obtained near the field of battle.

With the last issue of the Freeman Mr. E. F. Miller, who has been connected with it since its establishment, relinquished editorial control. Mr. W. C. Ivy has leased the paper and assumes editorial control with the issue of this week.

Vice-President Hobart Dead.

Washington, Nov 21—Vice President Garret A. Hobart died at his home at Patterson N. J. this morning at 6 30 o'clock.

Mr Hobart has been a sufferer for several weeks, from a constitutional trouble and there has been little hope of his recovery from the time that he was stricken, although he has rallied several times.

Garret A. Hobart was a native of New Jersey, fifty five years of age. He was a graduate of Rutgers College, and a lawyer by profession, having begun his study and his practice at Patterson. He was for several years a member of the lower house of the New Jersey legislature and once its speaker. He was also president of the senate of the state for several years. He never figured in national politics until 1896 when he was put on the ticket with McKinley.

He was a man of broad views and great personal integrity. He made a conscientious officer and was highly esteemed in the national capital, which now mourns for him.

Mr Hobart figured very slightly in the last campaign, but made a favorable impression on the people wherever he appeared.

Wm P. Frye, senator from Maine is the president pro tem of the senate and will discharge the duties of the vice president for the remainder of Mr. Hobart's unexpired term.

Americus, Ga., Nov 18.—The city council by a majority of two upheld the mayor in the case of the Christian Scientists sentenced for refusing to be vaccinated, and the cases have been carried over to the superior court. In the meantime the defendants are nominally under surveillance, though not required to give bond.

Columbia Business College,

COLUMBIA, S. C.

The leading business training school of South Carolina which turns out graduates for holding the best positions of honor and trust in the business and shorthand profession. The aim of the institution is to be honest in every statement it makes, and to give even more value than it promises. It claims to keep improvement as its watchword, and excellence and thoroughness as its standard. It aims to merit patronage by thorough, conscientious work. 50 per cent of the courses taught in other commercial schools of this section are not more than a preparatory to ours. Graduates assisted to positions. For information and catalogue, address,

W. H. Newberry, President.

TESTIMONIALS.

From one of our first graduates. He has a good position, and recommends our school as the best, as does all of our students.

Columbia, S. C., Jan. 8, 1897.

Prof. W. H. Newberry, President C. B. C., My Dear Sir: During the month of January, 1895, was the time I began a business course in the Columbia Business College. Although a stranger in the city, I was welcomed by professors and students, which made me feel at home. Having completed my course, I accepted a position as book-keeper for one of the largest dry goods firms in the city, which position I held for one year, and then changed to the grocery firm of James M. Green, one of the leading fancy grocers in the city which position I still hold. Owing to the thorough training received at the Columbia Business College, have been able to master every business transaction that has come in my work. In future years will always look back to the time spent in the Columbia Business College with pleasure. I recommend this school to all who desire a business education.

From your friend and student

W. W. GREGG.

COMPLETED SHORTHAND IN THREE MONTHS.

Blackville, Barnwell Co., Feb 30, 1899.

Mr. W. H. Newberry, President Columbia Business College, Columbia, S. C. My Dear Sir: It affords me pleasure to testify to the merits of the Columbia Business College. I do not hesitate to say that I have received substantial and beneficial results. I cheerfully recommend it to any person desirous of securing a business education. During my course of study at the college there was uniform kind and courteous treatment and attention. Close attention was given the students by the instructors to insure accuracy and thoroughness in their studies, and my progress was rapid, and I presume, efficient, as I obtained a situation as soon as I reached home, and, so far as I know, am giving satisfaction. I completed my Short-hand course in three months. I do not think the Columbia Business College can be excelled by any other in the State. Ever wishing your college grand success, I am

Your friend and old student,

(Miss) DAISY STOKES.

Probably you use it—

Nearly everyone does, and if so you know all about how far superior it is to either baking soda or baking powder.

Leaven

is the latest advance in baking preparations, and if you don't use it you should.

It Is Better Than Soda

because it will make biscuit just right every time. No more yellow spots or soda taste.

It Is Better Than Baking Powder

because it is half as strong again and one heaping teaspoonful will do the work of two rounded teaspoonfuls of the best baking powder ever made.

It Don't Spoil

but is so prepared that with ordinary care it will retain its full strength for years. We do not have to pack it in tin cans like baking powder, and this saving enables us to give you better value for your money than you ever had before.

"A little Leaven leaveth the whole lump," and for ten cents—55 cents for five cents.
